Day 1: Glasgow Highlights

Land in Glasgow Airport. Take a group transfer to your hotel, departing at 8:00 am, 10:00 am or 12:00 noon. If you arrive later than noon, you must transfer to the hotel at your own expense. At 3:00 pm set out on a city tour to discover the main attractions of Glasgow. Drive around George Square with its ornate City Chambers and nearby Glasgow Cathedral. Visit the Museum of Transport to view collections of cars, buses and bicycles. Back at your hotel, join your fellow travellers for a welcome drink before dinner is served. (D)

Day 2: Loch Lomond & Loch Ness Cruise

Drive alongside the famous Loch Lomond, renowned for its beauty. Travel across Rannoch Moor and through Glencoe, notorious for the Campbell massacre of the Clan Macdonald in 1692. Stop at Spean Bridge Woollen Mills. At Fort Augustus embark on a short cruise on Loch Ness to admire enchanting scenic views and perhaps spot the famous monster. Motor through Inverness before continuing to Nairn, a favourite summer residence of Charlie Chaplin. (B, D)

Day 3: Blair Castle & Distillery

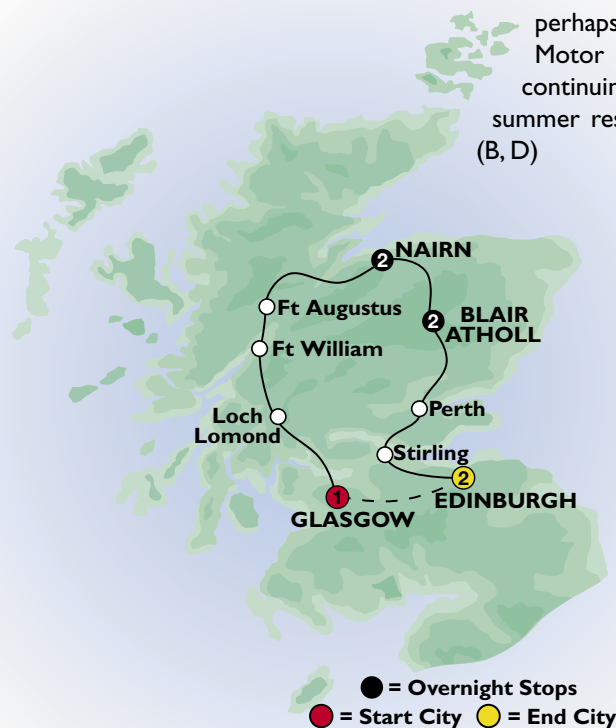

Head south to visit 13th century Blair Castle, home of the Earls and Dukes of Atholl. Nearby visit Blair Athol Distillery to learn about the creation of whisky and enjoy a sample. Continue south to Edinburgh and in the evening attend a Scottish cabaret where you dine on local specialties and enjoy traditional entertainment. (B, D)

Day 4: Edinburgh City Tour & Castle

This morning join an Edinburgh city guide as you drive through the gracious, wide streets of the 200-year-old Georgian New Town. See the compact medieval section along the Royal Mile and visit Edinburgh Castle, which dominates the city centre and contains the Scottish Crown Jewels and the Stone of Scone. The balance of the day is free. On August 11 and 25 departures enjoy the Military Tattoo at Edinburgh Castle. (B)

Day 5: Homeward bound

Complimentary group transfers are provided to Edinburgh Airport to arrive at 6:30 am or 9:00 am. A transfer to Glasgow Airport will be provided on request at a cost of €50 per person. (B)
